The brief pending timber and log suit between Captain J. M. Thomas, of Ford, and A. B. Aster, of Bell county, has been settled at last. A compromise was made last week, whereby the timber on a certain tract of land, amounting to about 10,000 acres, is to go to Captain Thomas. These terms will make about thirty thousand log, and it was agreed that half shall be delivered each year. Captain Thomas engaged Aster to get out the logs for him.

Finally settled.

LEGISLATIVE.

1 That, the law compelling our teachers to teach one hundred days, to attend the Institute five days, pay $10 institute fee, and in many instances $10 per week board, is unjust, and should be repealed.

2 That, at the meeting of the next General Assembly, a bill be introduced to extend the school term to eight months, and that a uniformity of school books for the State be adopted.

3 That, whereas, the recent extinguishment of practically all of the State's debt renders it unnecessary to present appropriation, and, whereas, the present school fund is inadequate to the demands of the system, only a five months term being maintained, and at extremely low salaries. Therefore be it enacted, That the State shall extend the school term to eight months, and that a uniformity of school books for the State be adopted.

4 That, the State shall extend the school term to eight months, and that a uniformity of school books for the State be adopted.

5 That, the State shall extend the school term to eight months, and that a uniformity of school books for the State be adopted.
